THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE D.S.R.VARMA

W.P.NO.25720 OF 1996

ORAL ORDER:

Heard both sides.

2. The petitioner seeks a direction in the nature of writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondent No.3 in not permitting the Nursing Students (old and new) of the petitioner-institution for practical training at Government General Hospital, Kurnool, in Rc.No.6326/N2/96, dated 28-11-1996, as illegal, arbitrary and unjust and for a consequential direction to the respondents to permit the said Nursing Students (old and new) for practical training at Government General Hospital, Kurnool.

3. On 04-12-1996, this Court, while admitting the writ petition, in W.P.M.P.No.31733 of 1996, granted interim direction to the respondents to permit the Nursing Students (old and new) of petitioner-institution for practical training at Government General Hospital, Kurnool.

4. Subsequently, since the said order of interim direction granted by this Court was not complied with, contempt proceedings in C.C.No.10 of 1997 have been initiated against the respondents, which were admitted, and eventually this Court having taken note of the fact that the order of interim direction, dated 04-12-1996, granted by this Court in W.P.M.P.No.31733 of 1996, had been complied with, the notice issued in Form No-1 was discharged and consequently the said contempt case was closed.

5. In view of the said fact, particularly in view of the granting of order of interim direction and its compliance by the respondents, nothing survives for adjudication in the present writ petition.

6. For the foregoing, I am of the view that there is no need to continue the present writ petition any longer and the same is liable to be dismissed as having become infructuous.

7. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. However, there shall be no order as to costs.
